WOULD-BE FIREMEN, HALF INCH TOO SHORT, MAY LAND JOBS YET

Civil Service Commission, at Hearing, Intimates It Will Lower Standard.

Fifteen hundred candidates, who will be permitted to take the entrance examinations for the Fire Department, if the Civil Service Commission recognizes the recommendation of the Fire Commissioner to lower the height standard one half inch, were given to understand the proposed amendment will be passed at a public hearing before the commission to-day.

The height standard of five feet seven and one-half inches, the same as the Police Department—has stood since its adoption by former Chief Croker eleven years ago. Commissioner Adams' contention that stocky men—not less than five feet, seven inches—were just as good as the taller fire fighters was borne out by experts to-day.

"Stocky men are the best smoke eaters," said one of the experts for work on the truck companies, where strength is needed," declared Chief Kenyon, who appeared to represent his department, with Deputy Commissioner Helder, and Dr. Joseph Smith, chief medical officer.

"My twenty-nine years of experience leads me to agree with Chief Kenyon," said Dr. Smith. "Short men, who have a large chest expansion, can 'eat' more smoke than the tall fellows. These are the men wanted at the hose heads in the thickest of the smoke."

President Moskowitz, declaring the commission has no objection to the proposed amendment, referred the matter to Commissioner Darwin R. James Jr. for report.

MAYOR OF CHINATOWN IS GIVEN PRISON TERM

Woe stalks abroad in Chinatown to-day, for the mighty Tam Shi Yan must go to prison. Tam is the Mayor of Chinatown, President of the Chinese Merchants' Association and was for many years editor of a Chinese daily newspaper.

Once smiling and happy, Tam, now inglorious, was before Federal District Judge Netter to-day for sentence. He had been convicted of manufacturing smoking opium in his home at No. 37 Doyers Street. His friends filled the courtroom hoping against hope that Tam's contention he had been "framed up" by members of a rival gang would stand.

But Judge Netter, declining to believe, he had a jury, that political enemies had "planted" the opium outfit in Tam's place.

"The judgment of the Court is," said Judge Netter, "that you be confined in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta for five years."

Tam bowed his head and was led away.

Tam's friends plan to appeal to President Wilson. Should the appeal fail there will be a mock funeral, with Tam in effigy as the central figure.

STUYVESANT LITERARY SOCIETY TO BE REORGANIZED

The reorganization of the Stuyvesant Literary Society, one of the oldest and largest clubs in the school, took place this afternoon in the auditorium of the schoolhouse under the direction of the English department. An entertaining programme consisting of musical numbers and speeches and recitations by J. Kasper, President of the senior class; A. A. Land, member of the Irving Dramatic Society, and John Greene of the Garfield Dramatic Club was given. The fencing team was also on hand to entertain.

HOW HE ACCOUNTED FOR IT.

(From the Boston Record.)

A man who was presented for naturalization said he had six children, all born in this country, that the oldest was sixteen, and that he had lived in this country nine years. This led to a little cross questioning on the part of the examiner, who could not understand the arithmetic of a man who declared that he had been here but nine years, but his oldest child, sixteen, was born here.

"Now do you account for it?" finally asked the examiner, willing to give the man a chance to get out of his apparent mistake.

"Why," declared the would-be citizen, "I married a widow with four children."

THROWN BY A RUNAWAY.

Fedder Lagoon Hurled Against Window and Badly Out.

The horse attached to Dominick Lagoon's peddling wagon took fright and bolted at Bayard and Elizabeth Streets at 5:10 o'clock this morning. The wheels struck the curb and the wagon was overturned.

Lagoon was hurled against the plate glass window of a clothing store at No. 57 Bayard Street, shattering it. His seven-year-old son Rocco was jolted into the street, but not hurt. Lagoon was taken to the Hudson Street Hospital suffering from cuts and bruises. The boy was taken to his home, No. 21 Prince Street. Patrolman Martinez caught the runaway horse.

Drops Dead in Railway Depot.

Charles G. Braun, a bartender in the Bridge Cafe at Park Row and New Chambers Street, dropped dead in the waiting room at the Woodhaven, L. I. depot about 4:30 this morning, while on his way to work. He was a familiar figure for twenty years to old-timers in Park Row. He was a manager in Leggett's restaurant and cafe where all the old time downtown politicians used to meet to get through their deals. It is thought that death was caused by acute indigestion.

—why Michigan, Iowa, Wyoming and North Dakota forbid selling the ordinary kind of rice

Polished, coated rice—according to such eminent authorities as Dr. Wiley and Alfred W. McCann—is adulterated. Each grain is coated with glucose and talc. This foolish custom was started by a rice broker who wanted to "dress up" his rice. The rice thus brought in. Now five states prohibit its sale—because such rice isn't pure.

Comet Rice

Uncooked
no glucose—no talc

Doesn't need washing because nothing is put on, so there's nothing to wash off. It is never touched by human hands until you open the clean, sanitary package. Try one of the recipes as printed on the carton and know how real rice tastes. You will then serve rice more often—a vegetable in soup, with meat, or as a delicious dessert.

Have your grocer send you a package. Tear out this advertisement now and put in your order to receive it.
